INTEGRATING INTO DIGITAL TECHNOLOGY SAFELY.

The digital age is upon us. Smartphones, computers, and other technology have more abilities than ever imagined. Technology allows users to access information quickly, stay informed at any time of day, increase efficiency, enhance innovation, and so much more. Integrating into digital technology practices is very beneficial, but also being aware of scammers or people attempting to compromise information is important.

Protect yourself from fraud and online scams.
Never give out personal information.
